STADIUM VIEW'S FAMILY OWNED HISTORY!

The story of Stadium View begins when the husband and wife team of Jerry and Diane Watson bought a building that was then a women's fine clothing store in September of 1992. They turned the 7,000 square foot building into a Sports Bar in just 28 days! When coming up with a name, many options were discussed but when it came down to it, nothing could surpass Stadium View for obvious reason. Since 1992, 3 banquet rooms have been added, 2 additional full service kitchens, and most recently a buildout that includes 2 indoor/outdoor bars including a rooftop bar - as well as a completely renovated outdoor space.

The legend that is Stadium View is currently in its second & third generation of the Watson family. Stadium View is presently operated by Bob Watson, wife Amanda Watson, their children, a stellar management team & staff that are second to none! Stadium View is also under the watchful eye of Jerry and Diane from above. Over the years Stadium View has witnessed numerous incredible events here - including a concert by Tim McGraw and Faith Hill that drew nearly 10,000 people. Jim Rome brought his radio show here for National Tour Stop #5. The Packers, with a very young Brett Favre, won Super Bowl XXXI over New England. Aaron Rodgers led the Packers to victory in Super Bowl XLV against the Pittsburgh Steelers. With a name centered so directly around football, the tailgate parties at Stadium View are legendary! There can be as many as 3 live bands and 3 DJs playing throughout the course of the day. On any given home Packer game it is not uncommon for Stadium View to have 8-10,000 people come through our gates. Stadium View has won many awards from local levels to national honors. Nationally we have been awarded by Forbes Magazine as the #1 Sports Bar in the nation, ESPN has named us a top Sports Bar in America and Esquire Magazine has named Stadium View as one of the top 100 Bars in the Nation.

A top Sports Bar in the Nation by YELP, CNN, BLEACHER REPORT & USA Today.
